SCHOOL NEWSLETTER 3.10.25

Dear parents and carers,

This week has been another wonderful success of a "themed week" in St Alban's school; Art Week. The children have shown excellent engagement, enjoyment and perseverance in creating their own works of art. We have been particularly impressed with their knowledge of their class artist in focus and know you will be celebrating their achievements. Thank you to all parents and carers who were able to support the Macmillan Coffee event to end our successful week, we are so pleased to be able to help raise money towards this cause. Have a lovely weekend, take good care.

Right’s Respecting School Article of the Week!

LINKED UNCRC ARTICLES

The activities in this pack about Black History Month link with many articles of the CRC but two particular rights stand out when we explore this theme

Article 2 (non-discrimination)

The Convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, gender, religion, language, abilities or any other status, whatever they think or say, whatever their family background.

Article 30 (children from minority or indigenous groups)

Every child has the right to learn and use the language, customs and religion of their family, whether or not these are shared by the majority of the people in the country where they live.

St Alban the Martyr, Holborn

JAM (Jesus And Me) club meets every Sunday at 10.45-12.15 in the church.

Do you have any questions about school life? We are of course, really happy to answer any questions about school, no matter how small :-). Do phone the school office to ask questions or ask to arrange an appointment to see the class teacher or Miss Fautley. If you are worried about something, see us straight away. Don't let a little worry turn in to a big one. We also like to hear your good news! It helps to keep us going with a smile :-)
